G7/8	Coding/ Programming	Book Club		Math/ Science	Writers Workshop

Book Club: We will read a different award-winning novel together each week. Genre weeks include: Science Fiction, A Chapter in History, Fantasy or Biography. Students will have the opportunity to enjoy lively discussions and participate in other book related exploration activities while developing their critical thinking skills.

Math/Science: Students will keep up with their grade level math practices by working assorted problems and exercises every day. They will also have time for fun science experiments that connect with their math once a week. Some math topics will include.

Students going into Grade 6

Numbers, decimals, fractions and ratio, algebra and geometry

Students going into Grade 7

Algebra, functions and equations, fractions, and ratio, geometry

Students going into Grade 8

Index Laws, measurement, ratios and proportions, equations, trigonometry

Writers Workshop: Individuals will have the opportunity to hone their writing craft - developing themes, plots, characters, settings, as well as conflict and resolution. We will work with genres like those used in the Book Club. The workshop incorporates elements of information literacy, research, formatting, style, and grammar. This is a great opportunity to get down on paper all those thoughts floating about in your brain. Students will explore their writing on the three weekly themes according to their grade levels. In the 3rd week, students will also explore writing their own autobiography!

Scratch Programming

This course will introduce students to the wonderful world of programming. Students will learn the basics of programming through fun projects. This course is designed for students in grades 6, 7, and 8. It is not expected that students have prior knowledge of programming

Teachers:

Book club/Writers Workshop: Mr. Brendan Agnew, Saint Maur International School
